

Facts for questions 17-23

Maureen and Wayne are invited to a fancy dress party. Ben and Scott are also guests at the party and, dressed up as burglars, they jump out at Maureen and Wayne and pretend to threaten them, demanding that they hand over their money "or else". Maureen immediately faints and remains unconscious. Wayne responds by punching Ben in the face and breaking his nose. Scott shouts for help and says they were "just larking around", but Wayne, seeing Maureen on the ground and believing that she must have been injured by Scott, launches a savage attack on Scott. Wayne picks up a chair and smashes it over Scott's head. When Scott is lying on the ground Wayne kicks him several times. Ben tries to intervene and while he and Wayne are fighting, Leonard, comes into the room. Leonard sees Maureen and Scott on the floor, with Scott having been badly beaten. Leonard calls Neville for help and they both tackle Wayne and Ben to the ground, tying up their hands and feet to prevent them from escaping while they wait for the police to arrive.
